nobody at amazon/twitch counted people as actual people who deserve respect and treated them as revenue source instead with negligence at best and abuse in many documented incidences by staff now america is fucked cuz it's got 320 million people total, a lot of median twitch users, and it imports from this generation or earlier the useful people who want to at least cyber compete cuz that's the easiest one to compete in i suggest blaming obama that guy was in office when twitch started california senator vp candidate is a bit silly cuz that state is retarded; someone pass it along to biden
